

Dairy industry

Food requires inorganic salts used as additives with specific regulated grades. The dairy industry is no exception to this.

Our experience in manufacturing the type of inorganic salts the industry requires (specific and low volume) enables us to supply this range of salts to meet the quality, traceability and documentation needs contained in requirements, food additive regulations and conditions to guarantee the final product.