

Oral care

The pharmaceuticals industry in general and oral care in particular have both pharmaceutical and consumer product requirements.

As a company we supply pharmaceutical grade products and tailor our manufacturing process to regulatory requirements.

We can develop products based on specific customer development needs in line with their formulations to achieve safety, stability, reliability and verification of adverse and unexpected reactions.